EVERYBODY COUNTS

Join us for a spectacular evening of wine, cheese and beautiful music featuring the Toronto Symphony Youth Orchestra (TSYO), conducted by Alain Trudel. The TSYO, in support of Griffin Centre, will be performing at St. Michael's College School - Centre for the Arts in their newly renovated, state-of-the-art theatre that accommodates 440 guests.

Established in 1974, the Toronto Symphony Youth Orchestra (TSYO) is a high-level orchestral training programme for talented musicians aged 22 and under. Alumni are found in virtually every major performing organization in Canada, and many have embarked on successful solo, chamber, and orchestral careers worldwide.

The TSYO is led by Maestro Alain Trudel, one of Canada's most sought-after conductors (also Music Director of Orchestra London, l'Orchestre Symphonique de Laval, the National Broadcast Orchestra and Principal Guest Conductor of the Victoria Symphony Orchestra). You won't want to miss this magical evening!
